What is the Expungement Clinic?

The expungement clinic is a collaboration between the Douglas County Public Defender's Office and the Roseburg Regional Office of Legal Aid Services of Oregon. The clinic is designed to help low-income, eligible clients in Douglas County complete court expungement paperwork.

How do attorneys work with the Expungement Clinic?

Volunteer attorneys meet with eligible clients to complete the court paperwork necessary for filing. The clinic provides one-time brief service. The clinics are held quarterly.
