What is the Pendleton Pro Bono Project?

The Pendleton Pro Bono Project provides two opportunities: 1) 30-minute consultations (with no strings attached) to legal aid clients on a variety of civil law issues; and 2) referral of cases for full representation.

How do attorneys work with the Pendleton Pro Bono Project?

The Pendleton LASO office provides pro bono opportunities for active and retired attorneys. LASO provides administrative services for the consultation and brief advice cases and provides technical assistance when needed for full representation referrals.
